

Name: _____

Directions: Answer each of the following either True or False.

_____ 1. America prospered during the presidency of James Madison.

_____ 2. It was illegal to import slaves into the United States when Madison was President.

_____ 3. When Madison was President, California was not yet a state.

_____ 4. Americans founded an outpost on the Pacific coast when Madison was President.

_____ 5. The War of 1812 was fought to settle a dispute with France over land.

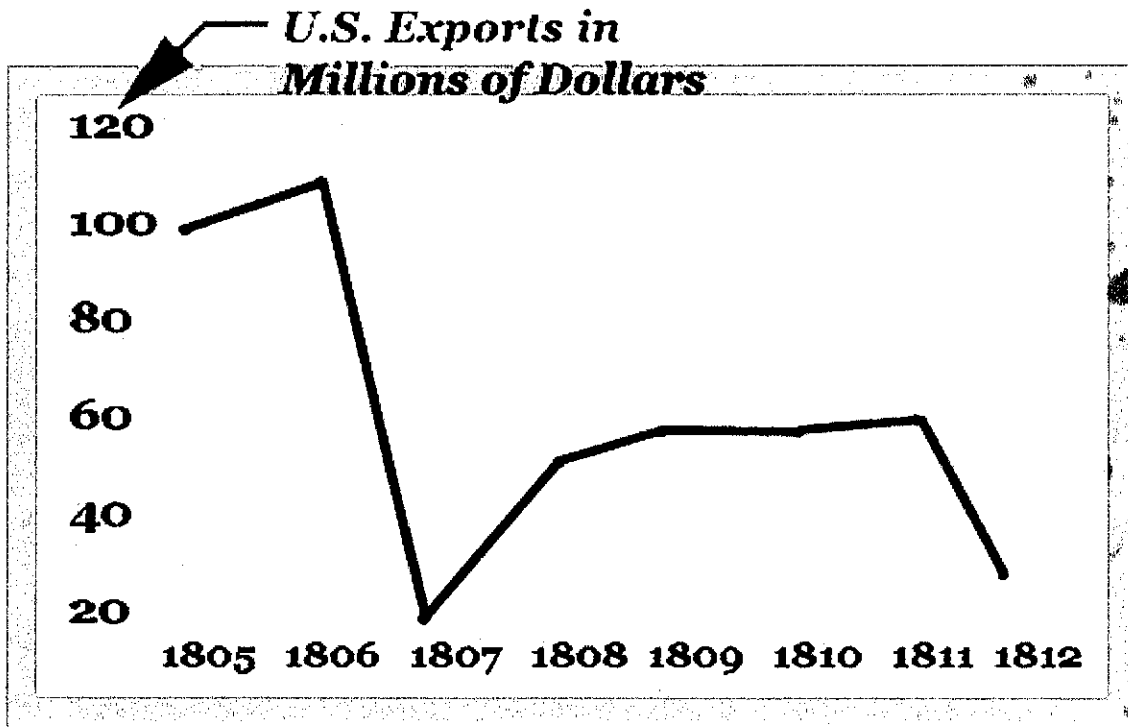

_____ 6. During the War of 1812, the United States Capitol and the White House were burned by the British.

_____ 7. One reason the War Hawks wanted war with the British in 1812 was to take Canada from them and make it part of the United States.

_____ 8. American Indians along the Canadian border fought with Britain in the War of 1812.

_____ 9. The National Road was constructed to provide an improved transportation route from New York to Florida.

_____ 10. The Embargo and Non-Intercourse Acts greatly stimulated the United States economy.

Questions:

1. What was the value of U.S. exports in 1805? _____

2. What was the value of U.S. exports in 1807 following the enactment of the Embargo Act? _____

3. What percentage did U.S exports drop between 1806 and 1807?

4. What percentage did exports increase between 1807 and 1808?

5. Why did exports increase between 1807 and 1808?
